

Alternative life projects in rural Southeast Asia: Reflecting on post-development through a study of diverse emplaced collectives

10th -13st June 2024

Ecole française d'Extrême-Orient, Chiang Mai, Thailand

Workshop organized by EFEO, IRASEC and UMR Passages

This workshop is part of a long-term project entitled “Alternative life projects in rural South & Southeast Asia: Reflecting on post-development through a study of diverse emplaced collectives” (AltLife-SSEA), initiated at the Ecole française d'Extrême-Orient (Paris) by a team of researchers from the Research Institute on Contemporary Southeast Asia (Bangkok) the French Institute of Pondicherry, and UMR Passages (Bordeaux). Its aim is to bring together representatives of alternative collectives in rural areas, in order to share their experience with researchers on the issues and objectives of this research project.

Organizers

- Gabriel FACAL, IRASEC, Thailand
- Xavier GUILLOT, EFEO / UMR Passages, France
- Catherine SCHEER, EFEO, France

Participants

- Kootyin CHOW, PEACE eco community, Hong-Kong
- Olivier EVRARD, IRD, France
- Arif. KIRDIAT, Ukhuwah Islamiyah (YASMUI), Indonesia
- Net PRAK, Bunong Indigenous People Association, Cambodia
- Dwi PERTIWI, Omah Ior, Organic farm and learning center, Indonesia
- Ramphai NOIKAEW, Pun Pun, Center for self-reliance, Thailand
- Wolfram SCHAFFAR, University of Passau, Germany
- Som SUPAPARINYA, Atelier Orange, Chiang Mai
- Chayan VADDHANAPHUTI, RCSD, Chiang Mai University (to be confirmed)

Hybrid event : on site and on line
Free entry
Connection
on registration

